

Support your local bookstores – if you can!

In these difficult times, your specific opportunities to buy the paperback at a local bookstore will vary.

If you're asking a bookstore to order the paperback for you, please bear in mind there might be a "longer than usual" delay, but you'll end up with a lovely book in your hands, and you'll have done a little something to help a local business to survive.

The ISBN for the paperback is: 9781999223052

The book is available through Ingram, worldwide.

Thank you.
